

CORPUS CHRISTI

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear friends in Christ,

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi. Each year the Church dedicates the second Sunday after the Easter Season to pondering this sacrament. The Blessed Sacrament has been given to us by the Lord to nourish and sustains us on our pilgrim way to the kingdom. Vatican II called us to a deeper appreciation of the Eucharist as the source and the summit of the Christian life. At the Altar, Christ becomes really and truly present to us, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity! Nothing less!

In the Eucharist, Christ has prepared a place for us. Pope Francis spoke about the Lord's preparation for us in a homily he gave a few year ago on this Feast:

“The Gospel we just heard speaks of the Last Supper, but surprisingly, pays more attention to the preparations than to the dinner itself... just before the Passover meal, Jesus tells the disciples: “I go to prepare a place for you... so that where I am, there you may be also” (Jn 14:2.3). Jesus is the one who prepares, yet before his own Passover he also asks us urgently, with exhortations and parables, to be prepared, to remain ever ready (cf. Mt 24:44; Lk 12:40).

Jesus, then, prepares for us and asks us to be prepared. What does Jesus prepare for us? He prepares a place and a meal...Jesus prepares a place for us here below, because the Eucharist is the beating heart of the Church. It gives her birth and rebirth; it gathers her together and gives her strength. But the Eucharist also prepares for us a place on high, in eternity, for it is the Bread of heaven. It comes down from heaven – it is the only matter on earth that savors of eternity. It is the bread of things to come; even now, it grants us a foretaste of a future infinitely greater than all we can hope for or imagine. It is the bread that sates our greatest expectations and feeds our finest dreams. It is, in a word, the pledge of eternal life – not simply a promise but a pledge, a concrete anticipation of what awaits us there. The Eucharist is our “reservation” for the heavenly banquet; it is Jesus himself, as food for our journey towards eternal life and happiness.

In the consecrated host, together with a place, Jesus prepares for us a meal, food for our nourishment. In life, we constantly need to be fed: nourished not only with food, but also with plans and affection, hopes and desires. We hunger to be loved. But the most pleasing compliments, the finest gifts and the most advanced technologies are not enough; they never completely satisfy us. The Eucharist is simple food, like bread, yet it is the only food that satisfies, for there is no greater love. There we encounter Jesus really; we share his life and we feel his love. There you can realize that his death and resurrection are for you. And when you worship Jesus in the Eucharist, you receive from him the Holy Spirit and you find peace and joy. Dear brothers and sisters, let us choose this food of life! Let us make Mass our priority! Let us rediscover Eucharistic adoration in our communities! Let us implore the grace to hunger for God, with an insatiable desire to receive what he has prepared for us.”

~POPE FRANCIS

May this great feast of Corpus Christi remind us that the Eucharist is the source and the summit of the Christian life! Blessings on your week!

SOCIAL JUSTICE

SHARING WITH OTHERS

Jesus connects with people through eating with them.

One of the most memorable meals I have had was given to me by Maria, who lives on the slopes of a volcano in El Salvador. Maria gathers coffee beans left or dropped by coffee pickers. She sells them, keeping some back for herself. When I visited her, without prior arrangement, I was treated like an honored guest. She went out and collected wood, lit it, and placed a pan of water on it. Then she went out again and came back with a parcel. It was locally collected honey.

The water came to a boil. In went two large pinches of her own coffee. She gave me coffee and she gave me a small bowl of honey. She gave me what she could. When I left, she gave me a little bag of coffee. About four tablespoons full. She bid farewell and said, 'Remember me.' I still have the coffee. It is too precious. It reminds me of her.

The honey and coffee she gave me was a sacramental meal. In memory, kept alive by the coffee she gave me to bring home, continues to inspire and feed me.
