

PENTECOST

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

From the desk of the Pastor,

This Sunday we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, the birthday of the universal Church, when the Holy Spirit bestowed wonderful gifts upon his disciples. I have seen those gifts wonderfully manifested in you as disciples of the Lord. And one of the things that has really built up our parish of St. Jude over the years is the wonderful generosity of parishioners like you sharing your gifts and talents. We would not be able to do what we do and spread the Gospel effectively without your willingness to serve. Each of us, as baptized members of the Church, is a part of the Mystical Body of Christ. St. Paul tells us that this body is made up of many members with different gifts which are essential to the functioning of the Body of Christ. Put simply, our Church and our parish would not be here if generation after generation had not responded to the call of the Lord Jesus to serve.

First of all, I want to thank all of you who have served or continue to serve in so many ministries so selflessly and generously over the years. We are especially grateful to those who have been able to help out in extraordinary ways during the pandemic. We so appreciate your help.

St. Paul tells us that, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." I have found that to be so true in my ministry. Everyone really does have something to give, whether that is prayer for the Church at home, teaching the faith to their children, or active ministry at the Church or something else in the community.

On this Feast of Pentecost, as we begin to emerge from the pandemic, I invite you to prayerfully reflect on how God is calling you to use your gifts. I am constantly amazed at the stories that parishioners tell me about how their ministry and service has touched and changed them and enriched their lives. If you haven't been involved in a ministry here at St Jude, I really want to invite and guide you to discerning a way to use your gifts in the service of the Church and the larger community. Even more today, this world needs the witness, presence and action of us, as believers cooperating with God's grace, to further God's kingdom. We need your gifts and talents to tell the Good News and to serve God's people. In the coming months we will be calling upon you to help in many ways. I invite you to respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Let us open our hearts and respond with the same kind of yes, faith and trust of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Thank you again for all you do to build up our parish and our Church in such wonderful ways! You are a great blessing!
