From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear friends in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate our patronal feast of St. Jude. His feast day is October 28, but as he is our patron, we usually celebrate the feast on the nearest Sunday. Here are some answers to some commonly asked questions about St. Jude given by the National Shrine to St. Jude.

Who was St. Jude:

St. Jude is the Patron Saint of Hope and impossible causes and one of Jesus' original twelve Apostles. He preached the Gospel with great passion, often in the most difficult circumstances. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, he made profound differences in people's lives as he offered them the Word of God. The Gospel tells us that St. Jude was a brother of St. James the Less, also one of the Apostles. They are described in the Gospel of Matthew as the "brethren" of Jesus, probably cousins. St. Jude is often confused with Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus.

Why is St. Jude holding a medallion or image of Jesus?

The medallion is an impression of Jesus, known as "The Image of Edessa." King Abgar of Edessa (now part of Turkey) was suffering from a serious illness. He had heard of Jesus healing others and called for Jesus to heal him. Jesus pressed His face onto a piece of cloth and gave it to St. Jude to present to King Abgar. Upon receiving the cloth King Abgar was healed.

Why is there a flame above St. Jude's head?

Known as "The Tongue of Flame," this represents the Holy Spirit descending upon St. Jude and the other Apostles at Pentecost. "They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them" (Acts 2:3)

Why does St. Jude wear green?

St. Jude is depicted wearing green because green symbolizes hope and renewal. Just as in spring when foliage and flowers spring up with renewed life, we turn to St. Jude, our Patron of Hope, in difficult or seemingly hopeless times.

We have three depictions of St. Jude in our church here in Redmond: A statue made of wood above the entrance of the Church in the narthex, a bronze statue near the sacristy in the back of the church and a stained glass window on the North side of the nave. This weekend, let us ask St. Jude to intercede for us as a parish that we may spread the gospel with the same kind of love and zeal he had.

Blessings on your week!

Fr. Johnson

RCIA - Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith?

St. Jude Parish welcomes all who come to worship with us and to share in our life as disciples of Jesus Christ. We also extend an invitation to anyone who is not Catholic, to consider becoming a full member of our faith community.

If you are a non-baptized person, or someone baptized in another church, and would like to learn what would be involved in becoming Catholic, please call Sondra Sciola at the Parish Office, 425-883-7685 ext. 117,

It is the time of the year, that we are asked to think about our stewardship of all those gifts that God has placed in our trust. Not just how we are taking care of those gifts, but how we are sharing those gifts with our parish and our community. In the coming weeks we will be asked to consider if we are returning a proper portion of those gifts to the Lord through His instrument on earth, the Church, for the building up of His Kingdom.

HATS FOR THE SEAFARERS

Do you knit? The Seafarers are in need of hats for the winter. All yarn is donated all you need to do is create a hat. If you are interested in doing this, please contact Sr. Betty. betty@stjude-redmond.org

Normally your parish Knights do Pancake Breakfasts to raise funds for Coats for Kids to provide warm coats to kids in need. COVID restrictions prevented this but we are still trying to support these children. You as a parish member have a great opportunity to purchase a "Virtual Pancake Breakfast" to help buy a coat for a child. Visit this GoFundMe site to donate on-line and you can list your parish as well. List your name and then put the suffix SJP for St. Jude after your last name so we know who its for (example: Last Name: Smith – SJP): <https://www.gofundme.com/kofc-virtual-pancake-breakfast-for-coats-for-kids>

Prayer for the Elections

We pray for our nation in the coming days,
That we move beyond our fears and concerns
To discern what will serve the common good
For all members in our society.

We pray that we may respond to the call of solidarity
Rather than the call to separate interests.
May we be more concerned with successful
Community than with individual success.

We pray that we dwell deeply on the call
To serve those in poverty
And recognize that every person
Has the right to life with dignity.

We pray that we honor
Our responsibilities as citizens
Without resorting to the polarization
That limits our listening.

Guides us in the coming days
In our process of discernment
So we serve you Through our choices and
Our concern for the common good. Amen.

Jane Deren, Ph.D.
